

I think we should be able to listen to satellite radio if we want to pay the monthly fees. I also believe that the Government should concern its self to more important matters of the world not just what we as God fearing AMERICANS should have to listen to in our cars and in our homes.